Annexure

STATUTES AS IT WOULD READ AFTER AMENDMENT

51. Complaints, if any, against an individual question paper must reach the Controller of Examinations by the 4th day of the examination in the particular paper.

The Controller of Examinations shall immediately pass on the complaint to Convener, Board of Studies who will send his comments and suggestions within two days. The suggestions of the Convener, Board of Studies will be placed in the sub-committee consisting of Controller of Examinations, one member of Syndicate Committee for scrutiny of complaints against question papers, Convener, Board of Studies, paper setter (if local), moderator of question paper, Joint Registrar Examination and Officer Incharge Confidential Section. Those complaints where the sub-committee does not find any merit will be placed before the Vice-Chancellor for final decision.

If the sub committee finds merit in the complaint and makes suggestions regarding moderation in the evaluation of answer books to redress the grievances of the examinees, the said suggestions will be placed before the syndicate committee for scrutiny of complaint against question paper for final decision.
